2021 marks the 100th anniversary of Skule Nite. In 1921, the School of Practical Science (SPS) at the University of Toronto staged a variety show called Ngnyrs in SPaSms at Toronto’s Massey Hall. The student show was a combination of music and theatrics, and it was an instant success. After only two years at Massey Hall, Ngnrys in SPaSms moved to Hart House Theatre as part of an effort to bring women into the then male-only Hart House.

Over the years, the musical variety show transformed into a one-night open house that was meant to display the large cross-section of skills possessed by engineering students, including sports, arts, music, and theatre. Eventually, the theatrical component assumed a dominant role, and Skule Nite evolved into one of the biggest annual events on campus. Full terms would be spent building elaborate sets and costumes, and the most talented actors from all faculties were sought out and recruited into the production. Sadly, the urge to become bigger and better each year collapsed the show in 1968.

Bouncing back after a long four year hiatus, the 1973 show witnessed Skule Nite’s return to its roots of engineering students performing a short series of musical numbers and comedy sketches. Almost three decades later, Skule Nite’s reputation as a hilarious and professional musical comedy revue has grown. Today, the annually sold out show is a staple of the Hart House Theatre roster and a Toronto audience favourite.

What happens when you mix hilarious sketch comedy, show stopping musical numbers, and the magic of Hollywood together? No seriously, what happens? We’ve yet to figure it out. But in the meantime, there’s SKULE NITE! A night filled with jaw-dropping, laugh out loud, 100% organic free-range entertainment. Every Skule Nite is a year-long undertaking in which engineering students and graduates create an entire show - that’s right, the sketch-writing, orchestra-arranging, music-playing, set-constructing, costume-sewing, dance-choreographing, vocal-directing, character-animating, light-designing, sound-mixing, tech-creating, prop-building, sound-effecting, stage-managing, equipment-trucking, show-marketing, film-editing, funny-acting, furious-producing, and intense-directing is done by students who are passionate about making every Skule Nite the best Skule Nite ever!

So sit back, relax, and laugh until you pee yourself. Then please...clean yourself up. Really, that’s going to leave a stain.

* * * * * * DISCLAIMER * * * * * *

Skule Nite is a musical comedy revue specifically designed for maximum offensive capacity. All opinions expressed in the show do not necessarily reflect those of the directors, writers, performers, dog walkers, or any reasonable person. If anyone has taken any sort of offense to the content of the show, we suggest that you do not pursue legal action. We simply can’t afford it.

Really though, all footage was recorded by the cast alone, very alone, in their houses. Alone. Covid guidelines followed. Very. Alone.

Even when the rooms filled with lines being practiced, notes being played, and sets being painted become empty, the magic that holds Skule Nite together prevails. I’m so proud of our team for being the creative and dedicated group who believed that a show that’s been on stages for 99 years could go onto screens for its 100th. It’s been mind-blowing to see every department reinvent what their role looks like, and to watch every person learn something they’ve never done before. There’s no doubt that we can truly do anything that we put our minds (and more importantly, our hearts) to. I’ve been inspired by every single person who has crossed paths with Skule Nite this year. Thank you for bringing hope to an otherwise pretty despondent time.

Nich & Maya, I am so grateful to know you, have you in my life, and have built this show with you. I think we had one combined brain by the end of the year, and I wouldn’t have had it any other way. Mike (Vu), you wore multiple different hats this year, and brought something amazing to the show with every single one; hats off to you. I’m so happy we got to do one last Skule Nite together. Mike (Contigo27) & Sandhi, you absolutely blew me away with the way you held this show together, from ninja truckers, to an entirely virtual crew – wow. To the cast, you’re all stars. You did something no cast has ever done before, and you did it with grace and laughter the whole way through. Thank you: to the band, vocals and choreo teams for bringing a few musical ideas from paper to reality, to the crew departments who made it possible for us to film & record our production, to the departments who created props & costumes, tech, woodworked & set pieces, to the departments who mixed & edited every second of the show, to the departments who gave their artistic skills to our show and everything surrounding it. Thank you to the writers for giving us your most vulnerable work, and helping fill the show with lines & laughs.

And of course to you, reading this, I’m so happy that you’ve found your way to our corner of the internet, and I hope you find some joy and resonance in our show. It’s built on the passions, themes, hobbies, & interests that we all love. This Skule Nite is for you!
Mom grab the camera, we’re on YouTube!! It’s been a long, strange year, but we’re all super proud to have created Skule Nite 2T1, and we hope you enjoy watching it as much as we enjoyed making it.

Skule Nite was one of my first homes at UoT when I first joined back in 2016, and after 5 years of being a band member/music director/fossil, it has been such an honour to produce the show during its 100th anniversary. I have so much gratitude towards every single person on this team for stepping up and working with us to create the show in a brand new format. From the cast and creative team rehearsing through Zoom, the band recording remotely and meeting through Discord, and the crew building, editing and hosting workshops from home, it’s been such a pleasure to watch the team grow and overcome the challenge of pulling off a Skule Nite remotely.

It’s been a privilege working alongside Maya and Sofia throughout the year, and I cannot thank them enough for their work and dedication towards the show. If our final web call showed anything, we have all become the same person in regards to Skule Nite and I cannot imagine making the show with anyone else. I’d also like to thank Mike Vu for his hard work in editing the show together, Mike Cortese for his work in leading the crew entirely remotely, and Sandhi and her ninja truckers for shipping equipment between the crew, cast and band members. Mack, Tristan and Emily for killing it with the cast vocals and putting up with the occasionally glitchy vocal gear. Danja and Jac for bringing the musical numbers to life with your choreo expertise; I’m absolutely floored that we got such fantastic looking group choreo recorded remotely! And finally, Alex and Will, my band… uh… grandchildren? that’s so weird to say, but thank you two so much for getting the band together and creating some of the best-sounding songs Skule Nite has ever heard. Lastly, Char, Bing and Ege for audio engineering the show alongside me during like 16 hours of Zoom calls.

We hope you enjoy the show, and I cannot wait to come back as a fossil when the show is back onstage!!

Nicholas Popowich
Producer
I didn’t really know how to write this so I’m officially sitting here listening to North Shore and boy does it cause all those pre-show nerves to come rushing.

This year was different for that very obvious reason but in many ways it has been the same. It’s roughly 4 days left to the show premiere and we’re still running around (in the virtual space) trying to pull things together. As any good Skule Nite would. We started off the year wondering if we’d be onstage and are ending it with an online premiere that will get to be watched by everyone for the rest of time – kind of cool if I do say so myself. From the very start I am so happy to have had Sof and Nich. Sofia, you are truly in many ways an enigma. I have likely spent every day of this year asking people how you are so capable of doing it ALL and doing it so, how should I put it, elegantly. It’s mind-boggling. And of course Nich, on our every call you brought this light-hearted, happy vibe that constantly amazed me because how?? You subwayed 2 hours out of your way to deliver a microphone piece the size of your palm and then when it turned out it was actually not necessary you just... laughed?? Honestly, I’m writing this down, I need to be more like you. You both were the absolute best and totally killed it this year. I couldn’t be prouder.

Michael and Sandhi, you two were such a powerful duo. So kind and so capable of getting your crew to work together to create an ONLINE show. How you moved such a hands-on group of people to such a not-hands-on platform. You two and crew are all my favourite beans. Also, I can’t thank the marketing team enough for totally putting up with everything I asked of them. You all are so talented and I appreciate you. As for creative... Anya you are hilarious, thank you for writing things I actually laugh at. Emily you are truly what people call the glue, don’t let them tell you otherwise. Jac, I truly appreciate how you make everyone feel so comfortable around you. Danja, as always it’s not a SkuleNite without your ongoing wonderful commentary. Trishie, honestly just seeing you makes me feel happy, truly. Mack, how are you so chill and so totally nailing it?? Alex, I don’t understand half the things you say regarding music and I think that’s so fudgin cool. Will, piano is the hottest instrument and don’t let anyone tell you otherwise. Mike, HOW would any of this have happened without you, it wouldn’t have.

This team is super awesome and everyone put in their absolute best. I wouldn’t change a thing. Except maybe some of the lighting in sketches (that’s on me). Please enjoy our show!!!
Stephanie McDonald

Stephanie M wants you to know that you’re NOT a true blue, and would like to ask that people please STOP throwing seafood at her dolls. This is a serious request.

Thomas Dell

As more of a shorts guy, Thomas hopes the rise in internet video calling means humanity has evolved beyond the need for pants.

Ernie Huergo

Spicier than a taco.
Stronger than tequila.
The talent of this Mexican’s about to kill ya.

Nancy Li

Nancy has decided to bravely combat imposter syndrome by being genuinely bad.

Rhythm Loomba

Rhythm’s parents made a deal with the devil so her performances are always on beat. Unfortunately, they lack soul.

EMILY MACDONALD-ROACH

Emily’s previous film credits include playing herself in several home movies and “Extra #9” in “A Stranger’s Snapchat”. She has not received any Oscars and she is mad. Consider this a formal complaint.

ANDREW EVANSHYN

Mr. Evanshyn is a very busy man, as he is a full-time, world renowned, highly praised, professional, and successful actor. Thus, he is unable to take any time for you right now. Any complaints about the performance should be directed to his agent at (647)-555-6622.

MATTHEW PALANDRA

Matthew is that guy that does viral magic on TikTok. You should ask him to perform some close-up tricks if you see him around campus. If only his magic tricks worked on his GPA :).

STEPHANIE PERRI

Stephanie P wishes this could be a voice memo, so to compensate, please read this in an Australian accent: “G’day there mate! If you’re reading this, Stephanie wants you to know that you are a true blue! Once this is all over, what do you say that you and Steph go throw a shrimp on the barbie?” (Serious inquiries only).
I played French horn and trumpet in the Skule Nite band for three years prior to becoming this year’s Music Director. I’m extremely proud of the work the band and the entire team has done to make a fantastic show under difficult circumstances. There are too many people I want to thank for me to list them all here. However, a special thank you is in order to Will “Luke” Pei for being the best Ass I could’ve hoped for. Additionally, I want to thank the arrangers (Katherine, Sergio, Will aka “Lemon”, and Nich) for providing the band with music to play and taking all my, often overly pedantic, feedback in stride. Finally, thank you to everyone who has been a part of Skule Nite both this year and in the past. Being part of the Skule Nite community has been one of my highlights of university and the people within have become some of my closest friends.

Wow, what a weird and unconventional year for Skule Nite, but we still pulled it off. I first joined Skule Nite during my PEY as the pianist in the band because I loved making music and being a part of music ensembles, but Skule Nite was something different. Everyone was so passionate about making the best show possible and the final product was always greater than the sum of its parts. This year is no exception. It has been an honour to be a part of the Creative team this year to bring Skule Nite to directly to everyone in the comfort of your homes. As Band Ass™, I am so proud of the musicians in the band who have put in all the effort to make the music that you hear in the show possible. So much effort has been put in by everyone on the team despite the circumstances. And now, possibly for the first time, you can enjoy our efforts in your pjs. I hope you enjoy the show!

If you thought a worldwide panorama would stop this year’s insanely talented crew from giving you phenomenal props and costumes, extraordinary set-pieces, whacky animations and crisp sound + sound effects throughout the show THINK AGAIN! I am so honoured to have worked with all the crew-brains you will see below and cannot thank them enough for their dedication even when working from home. Another big shout out to Sandhi for absolutely crushing her role as Floor Manager with all the new and different responsibilities that came with it. Last but not least to Sofia, Nich, and Maya for having been nothing but wonderful to work with this year and giving everyone on the team such an amazing experience for Skule Nite 2T1!

Theatre has been an instrumental part of my life, and I’m so glad I was still able to keep that aspect of it this year, especially due to the current situation. Everyone, from the cast you see on screen to the execs, creative and crew heads, has put in a lot of effort into ensuring the show came together and will go as well as possible, so I hope you enjoy the it! A SKULE NITE (FROM YOUR COUCH)

Though a lot has changed since 100 years ago,
I know there’s one thing that has stayed the same.
Can you guess?

Gosh-
I don’t think so!
What could it be?

Skule Nite, is filled with laughter
Skule Nite, has silly banter
Skule Nite makes us feel whole
And Skule Nite is a place that’s welcome to all!
And whether 100 years ago, on the first opening night, or right here on your computer, while we battle a viral plight
- Skule Nite is a home for us all to enjoy.

You can watch,
This Skule Nite,
From your bed, from your couch, with your wife!

Woohoo!

There’s no need to get out of your seat,
Unless you need to go pee!

This Skule Nite, is for you,
To sit back and relax as you view.

Now you could pause, rewind, go back, or just hit play.
And you could skip a sketch, but that would be a dismay!
Just slip into some PJs and this show’s underway!

This Skule Nite
This Skule Nite
This Skule Nite!

Welcome to
This Skule Nite
But this is a special show!

This Skule Nite,
What a year!
What a time,
What a place-

I need a beer.

If you close your eyes then you can hear all of their applause!
I think you’re right, I hear it now, they’re roaring in awe!
You guys, hello, the show’s online, there’s nothing to hear!

This Skule Nite
This Skule Nite
We’re online!

This part here,
This would be
A dance break if we weren’t on TV!

Take it away band!

(Instrumental Break)

Welcome to this Skule Nite,
Take a seat, dim the lights, hang on tight.

The hundredth year is here and it is like no other!
A fun show we made for you to laugh and discover!
We take it you’re ready for a show filled with wonder!

This Skule Nite,
This Skule Nite,
This Skule Nite!

This Skule Nite,
This Skule Nite,
This Skule Nite!

Did I mention it’s our hundredth year?
My goodness, yes, I think they already know!
INVESTIGATION 489: EIGHTEEN PI SQUARED

Do you see that student right there,
How’d she get that, 18 pi squared?
I’ve never seen her in this section,
That is awfully suspicious.

Look right here I’ve got a theory,
She paid the Prof and all the TAs.
Went to all their office hours,
Slid them 20s,
Money showers!

How’d she get that answer?
How’d she get that answer?
How’d she get that answer?

I’m telling you she bribed them,
Telling you she bribed them,
Paid off all of the TAs!

What about her notebook
Right here in her notebook,
She has got the full proof!

How’d she get that answer?
How’d she get that answer?
How’d she get that answer?

How’d she get that answer?
Was it magic? Wolframa?lpha?
There’s no way she derived it
Did the full proof, got the answer, no way!

Look right here I’ve got a new clue,
Her calculator - not faculty approved!

I’ve got the dean’s number,
I’ll call him right now,
Motherfu- (Hoo!)

How’d she get that answer?
How’d she get that answer?
How’d she get that answer?
She must be a —
She must be a —
A real cheater!

Maybe it was all in her head,
The mental math (grunt)
She’s a genius!

I hacked into the backend
Found her transcript-
She’s an INDY???

How’d she get that answer? How’d she get that answer? How’d she get that answer?

She’s a fuckin’ INDY
She’s a fuckin’ INDY
Do they even learn math?

Maybe she’s a genius?
Maybe she’s a genius?

Or she bribed the TAs!

How’d she get that answer?
How’d she get that answer?
How’d she get that answer?

How’d she get that answer? (I don’t know!)
Was it magic? Wolframalpha? (Lord I don’t!)
There’s no way she derived it
Did the full proof, (Oh there’s got to be a reason!)
Got the answer, no way!

She could have travelled from the future (Unlikely!)
The answer could save the human race - oh, I’m sure!

Yeah she’s acting all suspicious,
But I still have one question.

How’d she get that answer? How’d she get that answer? How’d she get that answer?

She must be a —
She must be a —
A real cheater!
LIFE IN QUARANTINE

I’ll feel fine
If I keep on baking
I would try,
But I deserve a break

Slow wi-fi
This is so frustrating
Parents try
To give me a headache

This is torture, this is hell,
This is life in quarantine
Stuck inside this prison cell,
This is life in quarantine

Stay calm! There’s no need to-

Buy everything,
Grocery shop.
Stock up on yeast.

Goddamn it!

Toilet paper and alcohol
All the shelves are clear!
What to do now?

I’ve got enough for the year
(This is life in quarantine)
(This is life in quarantine)

Every day
I lose motivation

Go away
Please go away!
This is inhumane

I’m okay,
Thanks to meditation
No more plans,
So I can’t complain

I’ve adjusted, this is fine
We’ll be out by Christmastime
I’ve accepted, this new life
This is life in quarantine

3 more months.
A second wave
A second wave
A second wave
Fuck this shit!

I can’t take 3 more months of this
I’m out of tiktok trends
Someone tell me
When will this Covid shit end?
(This is life in quarantine)
(This is life in quarantine)

Will it end?
Will it end?
Will it end?
Oh sweet god!

This is torture, this is hell,
This is life in quarantine
Yes it is!
Oh yes it is!
(This life in quarantine
This life in quarantine,
This life in quarantine,
This life in quarantine,
This life in quarantine)

THAT'S ENGINEERING, BABY!

That's engineering baby,
You're gonna lose some sleep this year.
That's engineering baby,
But don't be scared, you'll make it there.
That's engineering baby,
You're gonna lose some sleep this year.
That's engineering baby,
But soon you'll have a great career.

(Problem Sets)
That's Engineering Baby,
Trust me you're gonna make it.

(Group Projects)
That's engineering baby.

This lab took me all night and I got a 38.
No one can solve this truss, not even my TA.

Maybe when I finish this midterm I'll take a break to sleep.
But I have 5 midterms next week.

That's engineering baby,
Your labs will keep you up all night.
That's engineering baby,
Those midterms do put up a fight.

(All Nighters)
That's Engineering Baby,
Trust me you're gonna make it.

(ESP)
That's engineering baby.

And I thought it would get better on PEY,
But I have no real skills because I'm an EngSci

Maybe all those labs I did in second year were just a waste
At least I make a big salary

That's Engineering Baby,
Your PEY might be a drag
That's Engineering Baby,
But at least you'll have lots of cash
That’s engineering, baby
That’s engineering
(Then Capstone)
That’s engineering, baby
That’s engineering
Iron ring, Iron ring
Doo do, S-K-U-L-EEEE
And you’ve got a degree!

That’s engineering baby,
Stay up all night for a passing grade
That’s engineering baby
But we’re gonna change the world one day!

We’ll make it!
That’s engineering, baby
That’s engineering,
We’ll make it!
That’s engineering, baby

AaaahhhhAHHHHHHHHHH

Friends and Family

We’d like to say a special thanks to the wonderful friends & families of the Skule Nite 2T1 team!
Whether you lent us your homes for filming, rooms for practicing instruments, or space for making props and costumes, we appreciate you.

In particular, thank you to:
Steph P.’s mom for her beautiful fruit bowls, and guest musical number appearance;
Rhythm’s dad for driving an hour one way to unscrew a lighting knob;
Nancy’s friend for finding an obsolete Wii remote & alcohol-free wine;
Matthew’s family for letting him get whipped cream all over the floor;
Thomas’ family for ordering takeout to let Skule Nite use their entire kitchen for 2 evenings;
Ernie’s friend for lending us a filming camera all the way in Mexico;
Emily’s dad for his art studio space & camera hands;
Andrew’s Chestnut floor for being a good audience to his vocal recordings;
Steph M.’s dog for being cute.

Fossils

Thank you to all of our fossils who offered their creativity, advice, skills, equipment and more.
We know that this year was quite different, but we felt all of your love and support nevertheless. Thank you for believing in us!

In memory of Navid Nourian
Skule Nite Crew member, Cast member, Writer, and Director, as well as a beloved friend and member of the Skule Community.

May he rest in peace

“Navid snapped up from bed excited, as per the norm. He washed his face and dunked his head unaware of the coming shitstorm

Because today would be a special day it would have to go without a hitch Today was when he became a man Navid became “Mic Bitch”

With mic in hand and cues in sight the whole show relied on him he’d wait in wings, muscles tensed For the time Mic Bitch comes in

And from that day on he knew his place he was born for center stage with spirit burning like the flame of Anor Nothing would stop this mage

The year became 1T1 it was time for his audition he’d given his year to hone his skills it was time to complete his mission

A week passed slowly, no news must be bad until the second his phone rang he redefined the word glad He was cast! His heart sang.

As a first year cast member he would try as best he can but little did Navid realise he’d become the perfect man”
“he learned to act and sing with hair as big as a troll he learned to dance on a stage
all dressed as a sushi roll

On to 1T2.

Lights up! it’s time for skule nite 1T2
Navid said, to open the show
he had discovered mad rap skills and the world needed to know speaking of rap just the shows were not enough he created freestyle fridays

Navid proved that he was tough
Dropping lyrics like the sun drops sunrays.

And then came time for 1T3
he was sure it would not be a bore
Stripping naked, muscles flexed,
Navid became UTOR!

This show he revealed his true self a man without a doubt first rate but even as the last man live he still couldn’t find a date throughout the show we came to see that navid was not a fool in fact we learned his name is Navid and he’s so cooool (Sing this to “here to staaaaay”)

But then the show came to an end at steins filled with rim
Navid’s absurdly drunken face had no idea what was to come

Which brings us here, to 1T4 with a rooster, fax, and broken phone and it finally dawned on Navid that this show was his own.”
“The vision that he created of a show about pure fun was realised before his eyes and now that it is done

He raised a glass to all his friends eyes teary and fully alive
"This one goes out to our family here
Now on to 1t5!"

This one’s for our director
This one’s for our friend
This one’s for our teacher and a bond that’ll never end.

And they all raised a glass to Navid

BLACKOUT.”
